Hello Precious Baby
Welcome to the world
To all you Touro boys
And all you Touro girls

Oh Touro Baby
The great things you can be
All the places you will go
All the things you will see

Growing up in NOLA
Will be such a treat

All the things you will do
All the people you'll meet

Oh Touro Baby
All the things you will say

When you see Mardi Gras Indians
Yell "Hey Pocky Way"

Oh Touro Baby
Where will you stand

For your first second line
Your first hot brass band

Oh Touro Baby
All the games to be played
Your first day of school
Your first big parade

Your first bowl of gumbo
Your first pecan pie
Oh Touro Baby
All the foods you will try

Your first Roman Candy
Your first hot beignet
Your first nectar sno-ball
On a hot summer day

Your first splash in the street
During an afternoon rain

Your first ride on the streetcar
Past Loyola and Tulane

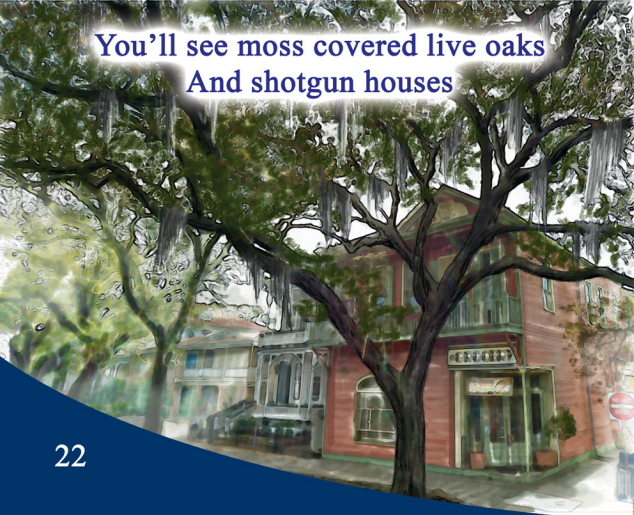

An afternoon shower
Will leave you humid and wet
A ride on the streetcar
May be your best bet

You'll see moss covered live oaks
And shotgun houses

You'll see little old ladies
Making groceries at Rouses

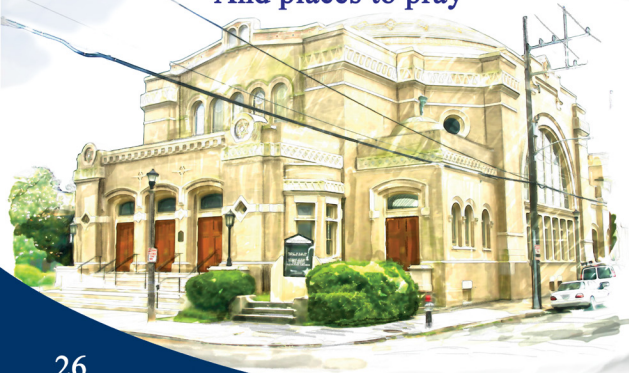

You'll see plenty of neighbors
Outside on their porches
Staying out of the Sun
'Cuz in New Orleans it scorches

You'll see synagogues and churches
And places to pray

26

It's a nice little ride
To cool off your day

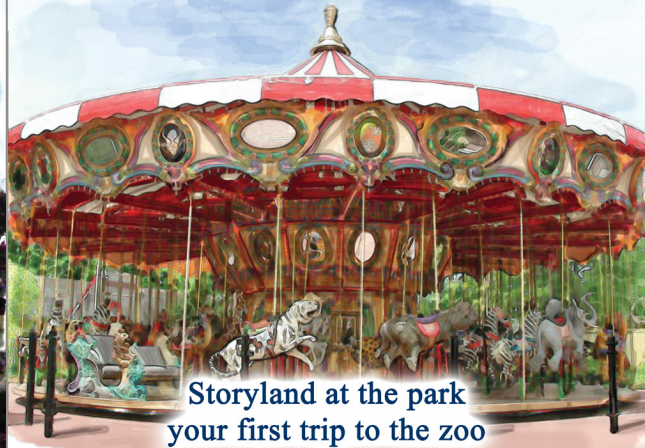

Oh Touro Baby
Too many fests to all name
Great food, fun and music
Most are the same

Two are outstanding
You'll have such a ball
French Quarter and Jazz
Are the best fests of all

Oh Touro baby
All the things you will do

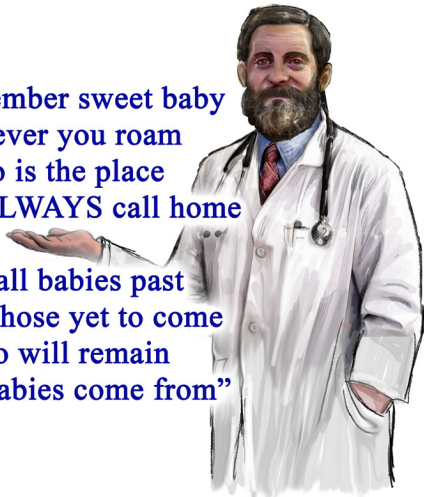

30

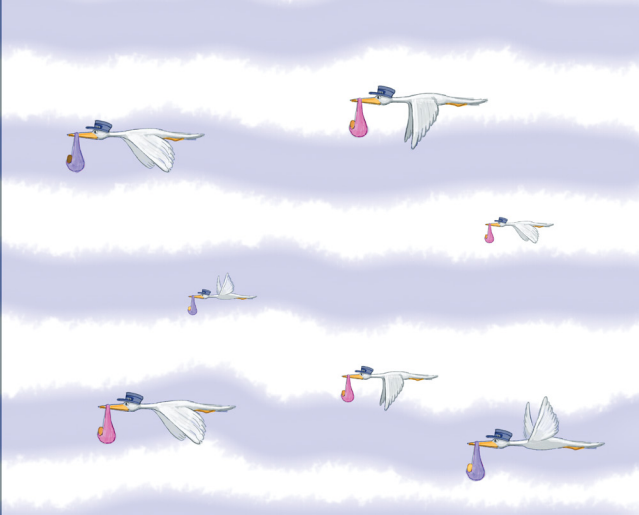

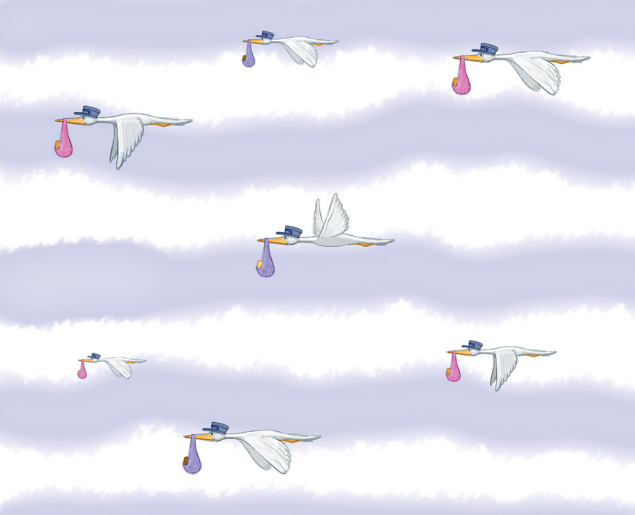

Storyland at the park
your first trip to the zoo

Just remember sweet baby
Wherever you roam
Touro is the place
You can ALWAYS call home

So to all babies past
And for those yet to come
Touro will remain
